

Lap Band and Exercise

Lap Band and Exercise

As noted, exercise in Life Following Lap Band plays a key role in helping to reduce one's weight, especially following surgery.

Simple exercises like walking or going for a half hour swim can help burn calories and keep the weight off.

Lap band patients should discuss an exercise program with their doctor so that it is the correct program and that they do not overdo it.